DESCRIPTION

Labradors are one of the most popular breeds in the UK both as a working dog and as a family pet. In this book leading animal photographer Nick Ridley captures the beauty and charm of the breed in all its guises. Labradors come in three coat colours: black, chocolate and yellow and uniquely Nick Ridley features the first black and tan Labrador to be verified by the Kennel Club. Includes wonderful images of Labradors in the field, as puppies, as family pets and in other working roles.

KEY FEATURES

- The perfect book for anyone who loves these dogs
- Stunning colour photographs throughout
- Will appeal to both the general market and the field sports market

THE AUTHOR

Nick Ridley is the UK's leading dog photographer. Nick has been involved in photography for over 25 years and his experience coupled with a lifetime of being around working dogs gives him an undeniable edge when photographing our canine companions. His photographs are used throughout the world in books and magazines. Nick has written two photography books and is the Gundog Editor of Sporting Shooter.
